AND CD

December 8th 2018

Courage to Lead and Chateau Log Farm

1060 Curb Chain Lane, Windsor, SC

9:00 AM

This is going to be a “FUN” yet educational practice for CDE and Pleasure driving in a different format yet loosely following ADS rules.

Opening Date: November 1, 2018

Closing Date: November 20, 2018. Entry Form must have a post mark date Space is limited.

Divisions: Combined Driving(CD)----Training and Preliminary. Loosely following ADS rules

Pleasure Town And Country (PT&C)—Training and Preliminary. Loosely following ADS Rules No Obstacles

Format: CD: Every turnout will do dressage then as soon as you exit the ring you immediately continue on the Cones Trail to the end-about 4K + (includes dressage test) . On the Cones trail you might come across interesting elements that are not cones, but there will be a bridge. There will be 20 plus cones and elements judge by observers.. If you get eliminated there will be no whistle –you just continue on to the end. Cones will be set at Standard settings. CDE drivers will be doing 3 obstacles included on the Cones Trail as per ADS rules. You will be given allowed time to complete from the beginning of the dressage to the end of the Cones Trail.

PT&C: Every turnout will do dressage then as soon as you exit the ring you immediately continue on the Cones Trail to the end-About 3K +(including dressage test). On the cones trail you might come across interesting elements that are not cones, but there is a bridge. There will be 20 plus cones and elements judged by observers. If you get eliminated there will be no whistle –you just continue on to the end. Cones will be set at Standard settings. You will be given allowed time to complete from the beginning of the dressage to the end of the Cones Trail. PT&C will not be driving the obstacles.
