Old Business

Gaston Barn is almost finished

Gerde museum is open Sundays, Peg is trying to arrange to get a bookcase there to hold the club library.

BBQ and Silent Auction were a success, $1150 was raised for Taylors trip to the Worlds. Thank yo to the Novaks for hosting.

Next BBQ is August 27th at Janelle Marshalls Farm in Windsor.

New Business

Vista drive, Peg Dils would like a list of the attendees, approximately 41 people have rsvped so far.

Signed releases will be required.

Plans are still being made for the Fall Weekend.

A copy of the revised By-Laws will be in the October newsletter.

Debbie Bevan will again be chairing the Education Committee.

Locations for the club Christmas Drive and brunch are being investigated.

Janelle Marshall has arranged a Koos De Ronde clinic in August. An ADS grant should cover most of the cost., The club will help with any additional cost.

Letters to organizers to arrange dates will go out this week.

A Tack Sale to benefit the Gaston Barn is being planned for November.

The idea of establishing a quarterly club meeting was discussed. Karen will send out an email blast to ask about club members interest in having meetings. It will also be discussed at the Annual Meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 6:41 PM

Respectfully Submitted
