Bits and Pieces

At the recent ADS annual meeting in Florida, they announced the winners of the ADS calculated championships for the Preliminary and Intermediate divisions for 2018-19. In Preliminary Single Horse, Bill Allen and Commander Mark took the Championship.

Other ADC members that were named: in the Intermediate division, Ray Mansur took the Reserve Championship and Price Story was Champion in Intermediate Single Small Pony. Bob Burrows was the Reserve Champion in Intermediate Pair Horse.

No more E Blast will be sent out as reminders for events. Check our Web site and newsletter for upcoming happenings.

“What is this spell which he [Trollope] himself could not “fathom or understand”, and which held him and has held so many men and women through the generations?... Why, to the very end, long after they can sit a horse, does something stir them at the smell from merely a stale and rusty box of saddle soap... These things are among the beauties of this earth; and they are reinforced by a thousand minor joys - by the schooling of young horses, by the mysteries of oats and bran and bandages, by the quality of leather and melton and cord, by soft, late-August day-breaks and hard, bright mornings of November, by the light on autumn oak leaves and brown furry swamps.”

James Boyd, M.F.H.
