

Aiken Driving Club
Board Meeting Minutes
January 10, 2023

In Attendance: Peg Dils, Tracey Turner, Carol Funderburg, Mick Burke, Sue Dougherty

Meeting called to order at 6pm by President Peg Dils

Minutes accepted as written.

Treasurers report given and accepted.

OLD BUSINESS

The board stuffed and mailed Membership Directories to members who did not pick them up at the Christmas Brunch.

The Christmas Brunch had a very good turn out.

The Derby clinic was held instead of the Derby. The Derby was cancelled due to lack of entries.

The Clinic was excellent. Thank you to Janelle Marshall clinician and to Kristen Whittington for the use of her facilities.

The Gaston Barn is in good shape and available for club functions.

The Gerde Museum is closed until March. The club is considering a Cocktail party there in the spring to acquaint club members with the museum.

The ADC is growing in membership.

Organization of the club trailer is ongoing. The club will purchase containers for the signs etc..

NEW BUSINESS

February 26th is the date for the Audubon drive. It will be a Memorial drive for Sandy Nickoliasen, a long time and generous member of the ADC. It was discussed that the club provide hot dogs and Chili with a pot luck for accompaniments.

There was discussion of arranging an Educational Fund and Perpetual trophy in Sandy's name.

Tracey Turner will be the new liason between ADC and the Southeast regional rep. Tracey will also talk to Shelly Temple about changing admins and resurrecting the ADC

Facebook page.

Carol Funderburg has arranged an educational event on 3/21. There will be a speaker on pasture management.

The Jungle drive is scheduled for 4/29 at Three Wishes farm.

On 3/4 there will be a pleasure show clinic organized by Katy Rhinehart.

The decision was made to revamp and update the old club brochure.

Future board meetings are being changed to the first Tuesday of the month.

ADC brochures and miscellaneous club materials will be available at the club Steeplechase table.

Peg will ask Tracy Higgins to arrange the carriage parade.

Meeting adjourned at 7:20pm
